There will be dances at Norway Grange Hall on Saturday night during the winter months, beginning Saturday, Nov. 4. The music will be by Shaw's Five Piece Orchestra. There will be the same good times as last year. Bus service.

Traffic going onto the winter schedule last week caused a number of passenger conductors and trainmen to discard their hats and coats and buttons for the plain blue denim of the freight service. By this change one crew on the Norway Branch is taken off.

The following pupils of the King School received 100 per cent in spelling for the week ending Sept. 29: Kalle Cummings, Mimi Huetter, William Huetter, Mabel Huetter, Mabel Huetter, Anna Huetter, William Tinkander, Ellen Tinkander, Elmer Huetter.

Through an "error in translation," which we will say to the credit of the cause that is the most convenient scapegoat, the Democrat last week gave the hour of the evening train as 7:20. Doubtless most readers have by this time discovered the hour should be 7:25.

Harry B. French was arraigned in the Lawrence (Mass.) District Court Sept. 30, and held in five hundred dollar bonds for action by the grand jury on the charge of passing a worthless check. The check was alleged to have been given to Thomas McDonnell, a North Andover house dealer.

There will be a harvest ball and oyster supper at Streaked Mountain Club House on Thursday evening, Oct. 19. The dancing will begin at 8:30 with music by Shaw's Orchestra. Admission, 50 cents, ladies free. Contradances will be featured on this night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Muzzey expect to leave in about three weeks for California to spend the winter. They will first go to Santa Ana, and will visit other places, but will probably spend most of the winter at Ojai, where Mr. Muzzey's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKnight, are now located.

At the annual meeting of the South Paris Board of Trade Tuesday evening, officers were elected as follows for the year:

President—George F. Eastman.
Vice-President—Charles G. Morton, Robert W. Miller, Dr. G. W. Merrill.
Treasurer—W. C. Colby.

The meetings will begin with a symphony concert at the Bangor Symphony Orchestra, Adelbert Wells Sprague, conductor.

The headquarters of Oxford County Farm Bureau has just been changed from the county building to the new building at 100 South Main street. The change was made necessary by the lengthening of the period of occupation of the county house office by the grand jury. The business men of South Paris showed their appreciation of Farm Bureau work by offering to pay $200.00 toward the yearly cost of renting the new office, making it necessary for the bureau to pay only $800.00.

From a recent issue of one of the papers of San Diego, Calif., is clipped a local story relative to the entertaining of Mary H. Taylor, wife of the association, and her sister, Mrs. Ira Mounian. Both were formerly well known here. Mrs. Mounian as Mrs. H. P. Taylor, but both have been in San Diego for some years. Refreshments were served by the hostesses to about seventy, including the members of the association, physicians and student nurses. As part of the evening's program Miss Taylor and Mrs. Mounian staged an interesting skit, "The Nurses' Directory," which brought much laughter from their audience.

A haze of smoke hung over South Paris and the rest of Oxford County as for that matter most of last week, caused by forest fires in northern Maine. About three hundred men have been fighting the fires in the vicinity of Moosehead lake, and quite a number of lumber camps with crews of men are endangered.

Wild animals—deer, bears and moose—have been killing deer and moose. Several animals have been burned and others are in danger. The Maine fires are thought to be through the carelessness of hunters and the Governor has threatened to suspend the hunting season, which was followed Thursday morning with a proclamation of suspension.

Fred E. Russell of Fowkes, Maine, and Kenneth Fowkes of Alaska, Oklahoma, who have been away for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frost, started on their return trip to the latter state Monday of last week, a distance of 3000 miles.

On the way here it took twenty-two days of travel time to make the trip although more time was spent as the trip was extended stops were made. Mr. Russell is a native of Bethel, but has been in the West for more than thirty years. While here he took in the Oxford County fair and the Andover fair, and made visits in Bethel and Andover. The first named town he found people who were his old friends. The return trip was over the Lincoln Highway, which they traversed most of the way, although they tried some other roads, but did not find them as good as the Lincoln road. No accident, except the blowing out of one tube, marred the trip. Mr. Russell has been in the hardware business at Maine, but sold it out before his visit to Maine, and thinks he may go into business in Oklahoma on his return.

Miss Emma E. West was at home for the week-end and on Saturday, where she is teaching.
